February 2020

Dear Student Artist,

On behalf of the Art Supervisors Association, we would like to extend our sincere congratulations to you for being selected as one of this year's All-County Artists. Out of the thousands of students who participate in art classrooms across all of Nassau County, you have been chosen to represent your school district and have your work showcased at the prestigious 2020 All-County Art Exhibit, sponsored by our association.

This exhibit, which artwork by students from kindergarten through grade twelve, will be held at Farmingdale State College's Roosevelt Hall in Farmingdale on Sunday, March 15, 2020 from 12 noon to 4 p.m. Family and friends are encouraged to attend the exhibit anytime during the specified hours, with no admission charge. Additional items including exhibit information/directions and a campus map have been attached to this correspondence for your convenience. Certificates will be distributed through the art administrator/liason in your district several weeks after the exhibit.

The Art Supervisors Association truly appreciates all of the hard work, effort and dedication that you have put forth in the area of visual arts. We are excited to exhibit your creative entry and look forward to having you with us on March 15th to celebrate your outstanding achievement.

Sincerely,

Elena Cardo
President, Art Supervisors Association
